What is OmniHacks?

OmniHacks is a student-run hackathon for high school students in the Bay Area. It aims to encourage students of a diverse age group to put to use their creativity as well as a variety of resources to build products that combat 21st century problems. OmniHacks will offer an environment in which programmers with varying levels of experience will be able to thrive in. Additionally, at the hackathon, hackers will be given a specific theme which they can focus their projects towards to tackle a more specific subset of social problems. With the help of sponsors, OmniHacks can create an enriching experience for our hackers that will push them to innovate beyond their limits both at the hackathon as well as in their lives moving forward.

What are the logistics?

OmniHacks plans to host approximately 200 high school students in 42, Fremont on September 21 - 22, 2019.

Why sponsor us?

Sponsors will have the opportunity to form an experience that has a lasting impact on the computer science journeys that hundreds of attendees at the hackathon will be looking to pursue. By being a sponsor for OmniHacks, sponsors will be able to advance hackers' passion for computer science by holding workshops, demos and being a resource as the hackers create their own products for the competition. Through our various sponsorship perks, detailed below, you will be able to promote your organization to the next generation of coders while playing a crucial role in furthering their passion and knowledge in the field of computer science.

Where will your money go?

The money will go towards food, swag, prizes, venue, and all other necessities for OmniHacks to be a stellar success. Hack Club Bank, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, is the official fiscal sponsor for OmniHacks. All contributions to OmniHacks will be processed by Hack Club Bank, and therefore will be tax deductible.

How can you help?

- Monetary – sponsor a money value (Tiers outlined on next page)
- Meal – sponsor a meal for 200 students (Tier determined based on monetary value of meals)
- Prize – sponsor any new technology to be awarded (Tier determined based on monetary value of prizes)
